

The Academy of Moore County received 3rd place at the Moore County Young People's Fine Arts Festival. This is an annual contest and exhibition presented by the Arts Council of Moore County. Tommy Gorzinski (zentangle paper sculpture), Mia Janker (clay/mixed media sculpture), and a 3rd grade collaboration of nature sculptures received honorable mention awards, the highest level award given at the elementary school level. Kate Curtin, the Youth Program Director at the Arts Council of Moore County is pictured with Ms. Brown in the last photo. Congratulations!

